Registration Fee and Continuing Legal Education (FAO)

EUR 395 standard fee · EUR 340 for members of davit, DGRI or OSE.

The fees apply equally to in-person and online attendance and include VAT. Payment is due upon registration. You will receive your invoice by email or, on express request, by post. Upon request, we will send you an electronic certificate of continuing legal education covering up to 8 hours under Section 15 FAO after the symposium.

SYMPOSIUM Special: Offset the Registration Fee against Membership Dues

Register for the symposium and become an OSE member at the same time: we will credit your registration fee against your 2027 membership dues. The articles of association, membership fee schedule and application form are available on the OSE website (Home → Organisation). Information will also be available at the event.

Registration and Terms of Participation

We prefer online registration via our website. Alternatively, you can complete the form below and email it to sabrina.boehm@ose-international.org. Attendance is limited; registrations will be processed in the order received. You may nominate a substitute attendee.

If the event is cancelled, there is no entitlement to have it held. The organiser will not reimburse travel or accommodation expenses or lost working time.

Participant List, Photography and Video Recording

A participant list including names, organisations, email addresses and locations is expected to be distributed at the venue. Photos and videos may be taken during the event for OSE marketing purposes, including publication on the website. If you do not wish to appear on the list or in recordings, please contact us before the event.

Language of the Event
